Pastel Painting-Three Basic Steps

CAROL ZACK FRIDAY AFTERNOONS 12:30-3:00 PM *note time change

Use Pastel to create vibrant paintings using three basic steps: 1. Learn to create an under painting. 2. Develop shapes and Values in the painting. 3. Focus on the edges and color to finish up the painting. Both soft and oil pastel painters are invited to join us to polish your skills or to learn how to actually paint with pastel for the first time. This is a great class for all skill levels. Knowing how to draw is helpful but not required. The immediacy of pastel's application and its forgiving nature makes working with this medium fun and spontaneous, but also allows for luminous and atmospheric paintings. Check the supply list on line or at the front desk because not all types or brands of pastels will work. The techniques presented require either artist grade soft or oil pastels which make a painting more desirable for the artist and collector. b.i.a.

SU ZACK 1 A: June 9, 16, 23, 30
B: July 14, 21, 28, Aug. 4
C: Aug. 11, 18, 25, Sept. 1

Improving Your Watercolor Skills      B & C only

GEORGE BRUCE      FRIDAY MORNINGS (9:30 - 12 NOON)

If you wish to approach watercolor painting in a tight, realistic manner, this class is for you. We will concentrate on composition, initial drawings and creativity. We will paint only what you enjoy and are excited about. I will supply reference material if necessary, but suggest you bring your own photos to work from. Really don't want references from commercial materials. We will work on letting the paints mix on paper. We may even paint a still life or go wild and attempt abstract. This will be a relaxed class, fun and exciting; just what the medium of watercolor should be.

b.i.a.
