CREATIVITY

Methods in Creativity

C ABRAMOFSKY

ZOOM

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOONS

1:00PM –3:00PM

This class is all about making art. We are going to explore, experiment, play and indulge ourselves in the joy of making art. If you have wanted to try different art techniques, but were unsure of what supplies or what type of art you want to do, or if you are experienced but want to try a different medium, this class is for you. We will start off discovering the art of Notan, Enso and the Expanded Square. Then in future classes we will work with various types of supplies and techniques, including gellie printing, air dry clay, stencils and stamps. Each class will start out with some simple, fun warmup exercises. Come join us. Teacher will hold class if 1 or more student sign up.

DRAWING AND COLOR PENCIL

Watercolor with Colored Pencil

M BUCHOLZ

MONDAY EVENINGS

7:00 – 9:30 PM

To get the best of drawing and painting, we will first sketch out a scene. Then quick washes of watercolor will be applied to block out large areas, followed by colored pencil for getting the nitty gritty details that make the viewer look twice at your masterpiece. This technique will cut the amount of time you spend on your colored pencil painting. Materials needed, a pad of Canson watercolor paper, a flat watercolor brush, and a set of 12 or more colored pencils. b.i.a.

Colored Pencil Magic

M BUCHOLZ

WEDNESDAY MORNINGS

9:30AM - NOON

After learning a few techniques of color mixing, strokes and pressure of pencil, see how easy it is to tell your story through this versatile and portable medium. Using a combination of misty backgrounds and subject matter in sharp focus, you can create a lovely picture very easily. Prismacolor is the pencil of choice, and watercolor colored pencils and black and tan paper will be available to be used to explore more options. b.i.a.
